8 STEP GUIDE

TO YOUR PRE-CONSTRUCTION JOURNEY

Here at Wilson Homes we pride ourselves on delivering an honest and brilliant experience at every step of your build journey. We will partner with you through every stage and milestone throughout the entire building process, from the moment we help you to select the perfect design for your lifestyle and location, to the day we hand over the keys to your brand new Wilson Home.

Our aim is to make sure you love building your dream home as much as we do!

We believe that every home we build is unique and we will make every effort to ensure your new home is built in the shortest time frame possible. To help you understand the process, we have outlined below the different steps involved in bringing your new home to life.
